You can play my guitar, see where it go Send this song to a distant star while the rhythm
explodes
Just singing a song won't change the world

You can drive my car, see how it rolls Feel a new energy as it quietly rolls
Just singing a song won't change the world

Just singing a song won't change the world
Just singing a song won't change the world

You can sing about change, well, you're making your own
You can be what you're trying to say on a big wheel road
Just singing a song won't change the world

Just singing a song won't change the world
Just singing a song won't change the world

You can play my guitar, see where it goes Send this song to a distant star while the rhythm
explodes
Just singing the song won't change the world
