Mindless drifter on the road
Carry such an easy load
It's how you look and how you feel
You must have a heart of steel

Why do I keep fucking up

I can see you on a hill
Comatose but walking still
Curves beneath your flowing gown
Only I could bring you down

Why do I keep fucking up

Dogs that lick and dogs that bite
Hounds that howl through the night
Broken leashes are all over the floor
Keys are left hanging in a swinging door

Why do I keep fucking up

Keep fucking up
