so now you're back again thinking all that you did is gone but baby I can't forgive you so you better go walk out that door I see you're here again and you say that your love is true boy you think I can't resist you so you better go before I fall

I don't know why we're so restless
I know you know that it's true
I don't know why we're so restless
I know you know that it's true
I don't know why we're so restless
I know you know that it's true
I don't know why we're so restless I don't know why we feel so strong sometimes I feel so bad cause I think that you'll never change or can you promise that you won't hurt me anymore no anymore you'd better ask yourself what's the thing that you're looking for boy you can find all the answers in another girl another love
