The steaks are getting cold on the table I've got the TV on to "That's Incredible" Every other woman is hot apple pie so why isn't he home on time?

He's working late
And there aint nothin in the world that you can do to bring him home to you
'cause when he says he's working late..

Oh lord, when we first moved in together he just couldn't wait to hold me in his arms so he'd never hesitate talk in words love, make me feel like a little girl well now his living in another world

he's working late
and there aint nothin in the world that you can do
to bring him home to you
'cause when he says he's working late..

You give him all the love you could and sometimes i give alone you think he's looking for something he can't find at home well tomorrow night, lets not go home
-harmonica-

I just go home, hang out by the tv set there aint no more shows on and he aint home yet try to close my eyes, and tell myself that he would never fall in love with someone else

he's working late
and there aint nothin in the world that you can do
to bring him home to you
'cause when he says he's working..

he's working late
and there aint nothin in the world that you can do

to bring him home to you
'cause when he says he's.. he's working late - oh i know he's working he's working late - then he just better be working late
