The day is getting late It's a lot to take Looking at your face It hides
Nothing Emotions are recycled I open the window
I don't know about you But I'm feeling stifled
Then I get just a glimpse I see where our love is Please look into my eyes
Baby you gotta try to
Dial into me Dial into me Dial into me Dial into me
Don't talk in circles
You don't know what to say
How did we get this way
It's like we just press play
And run on automatic (it gets so static) I can barely breathe
You're filling up with steam
You say it's about me
But I'm just setting boundaries
Then I see a bright light I see it's worth the fight I know we'll get it Right
Baby our love can shine if you
Dial into me
Dial into me
Dial into me
Dial into me
Don't walk in circles
We're after the same things
Bursting at the same seams
I cannot carry the whole load here
No I can't tell you what that means
I'm gonna carry my load
If you promise not to take your eyes off me Don't take your eyes off me
Don't take your eyes off me
Lets break the circle
