Picture perfect

A life that you saw in a magazine or maybe a travelling book

Wanted to get on that plane

And fly away

'Cause you are a rock star deep down inside

You walk with a swagger, got nothin' to hide

Cigarette in your mouth, a cuff on your jeans

Your sideburns are perfect, you're perfect and lean

So you made an oil painting to immortalize

All of the hope and vision in your eyes

In your leisure coat and cowboy hat

North American records and so much to bat for

Please bring me along

Please bring me along

'Cause I want to see everything you have to offer me

Get a job lifting cement

Oh, it's so dry, when it rains it gets wet

And the village was great, but now it's a suburb

You left behind half of all that you had learnt

You relearn a couple things along the way

The thrift store so clean all for half what you'd pay

So you try everything on, on for size

And drop top your camaro and go for a ride

Please bring me along

Please bring me along

'Cause I want to see everything you have to offer me

And I, I don't mind

To sit here and waste all my time

Oh, but this world is not mine

To define and I wanna shine

Please bring me along

Please take me away

I don't want to stay

And I want to see everything you have to offer me
And I want to see everything you have to offer me
And I want to see everything you have to offer me
And I want to see everything you have to offer me

I want to see everything the world has to offer me
I want to see everything the world has to offer me
And I want to show everything I have to offer it
I want to show everything I have to offer it now
