Can't start a fire without a flame
Can't play the part without a game
Can't feel the love without the pain
Can't talk to me if you talk the same

When you're burned out
Baby, you gotta calm down
Thought you had it figured out

Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
I know how to make something outta nothing

Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
I know how to make something outta nothing

Can't have a drink without a well
Can't fall asleep without a spell
Can't feel the wind without a kite
Can't pack your bags without a knife

When you're burned out
Baby, you gotta calm down
Thought you had it figured out

Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
I know how to make something outta nothing

Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
I know how to make something outta nothing

Time for the shades on, quave on, shot glass
Fly eyes, pretty smile, plus she got class
I'ma show you a little something
But here's a preview when I speak

Sparks fly grinding metal

I'm lethal, she's hot like liquid metal with tee-too
Whether flas in felitos, red carpet and ghetto
Baby, I'm nasty Nas, I just had to meet you
Just watch that back with a glass screaming eagle

Painting pictures, writing my illest rhymes on the izzle
Ladies on check and asking when I'ma see you
Miami penthouse sweet crazy with the sea view
Still keep it hood like the streets I used to creep through

Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
I know how to make something outta nothing

Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
Baby, I can give you something
I know how to make something outta nothing
