"Bloody Revolution"

by Crass originally recorded 1980

You talk about your revolution, well, that's fine
But what are you going to be doing come the time?
Are you going to be the big man with the tommy-gun?
Will you talk of freedom when the blood begins to run?
Well, freedom has no value if violence is the price
Don't want your revolution, I want anarchy and peace Chorus: You talk of over throwing power with violence as your tool

You speak of liberation and when the people rule Well ain't it people rule right now, what difference would there be?

Just another set of bigots with their rifle-sights on me But what about those people who don't want your new restrictions?

Those that disagree with you and have their own convictions?

You say they've got it wrong because they don't agree with you

So when the revolution comes you'll have to run them through

Yet you say that revolution will bring freedom for us all Well freedom just ain't freedom when your back's against the wall

Chorus

Will you indoctrinate the masses to serve your new regime?

And simply do away with those whose views are too extreme?

Transportation details could be left to British rail Where Zyklon B succeeded, North Sea Gas will fail
It's just the same old story of man destroying man We've got to look for other answers to the problems of this land

Chorus

Vive la revolution, people of the world unite Stand up of courage, it's your job to fight
It all seems very easy, this revolution game But when you start to really play thing won't be quite the same

Your intellectual theories on how it's going to be Don't seem to take into account the true reality Cos the truth of what you're saying, as you sit there sipping beer
Is pain and death and suffering, but of course you wouldn't care
You're far too much of a man for that, if Mao did it so can you What's the freedom of us all against the suffering of a few?
That's the kind of self-deception that killed ten million jews
Just the same false logic that all power-mogers use
So don't think you can fool me with your political tricks Government is government and all government is force Left of right, right or left, it takes the same old course Oppression and restriction, regulation, rule and law
The seizure of that power is all your revolution's for You romanticise your heroes, quote from Marx and Mao
Well their ideas of freedom are just oppression now Nothing's changed for all the death that their ideas created It's just the same fascistic games, but the rules aren't clearly stated Nothing's really different cos all governments the same
They can call it freedom, but slavery is the game There's nothing that you offer but a dream of last years here
The truth of revolution, bother..... is year zero
