Sometimes you wonder,
I am the only one who's alive here
In the middle of darkness of the past and future
How can you survive here?
Wasn't life a journey?
you love the essence,
how can we find it?
Now you find yourself drifting, losing direction to rhythm and time

Always when I long the storm,
the coldness seems unending
Just before the break of day when a voice inside you is calling

Chorus
It's the time to let yourself fall into the light, 'til the stream of life will catch you Take me away into this world of yours
Let's break away
Baby just fall into the light,
Take a piece of lightning with you
Take me away into this world of yours
Let's break away, just break away

La la la la la la la la la la la la la la la
La la la la la la la la la la la la la la la...
Just break away

La la la la.....
Storm of light

Storm of light
Let the power come alive

With you I wonder are you the only one who can see me
The ray of light in the sadness came to protect me
You're no longer alone

Always when I long the storm,
the coldness seems unending
Just before the break of day
when a voice inside you is calling

Chorus

It's the time to let yourself fall
into the light, 'til the stream of life will catch you Take me away into this world of yours
Let's break away
Baby just fall into the light,
Take a piece of lightning with you
Take me away into this world of yours
Let's break away, just break away
