Hominids:

Australopithecus robustus with sagittal crests

Massive grinding teeth in a large lower jaw

Slave shells -- tough materia that needs a lot of grinding

Deformed creatures of a misshapen breed

Humans:

Slave masses traded in the neo-Neanderthal world

Valleys and roads with marching slave rows

Human meat has become a brand

A dead brand for a dead land

Last breed of man

Signals of the end of the progression of human history

Neo-Neanderthals:

An evolutionary dead end in the creation's chain

Butcherings through dead continents

Neo-Neanderthals the master butchers
