I'm breaking from my cage.
I'm cutting all my ties.
Every word you said to me was just a fucking lie.
So fuck you.
Tear me down.
I will rise again.
Tear me down.
I will rise again.
Every word spoken engraved into my head.
Every memory had taken to the grave.
Tear me down.
I can't take it.
I can't fit in this body bag.
I won't fit in this body bag.
I'm tearing down this city.
I'm breaking all these lights.
Every breath I've taken has ended in a fight.
So fuck you.
Tear me down.
I will rise again.
Break me down.
I will rise again.
Maybe tomorrow I'll make the cripples walk just so I can break their legs.
Jack the ripper ain't got shit on me.
Take my hand.
I'll take you away from your misery.
When I fell you weren't there.
You let me rot.
I hope your kingdom burns down and you fucking choke.
Take me back from the edge.
I've gone too far.
This is it.
Calling quits.
This is the end.
Take me back.
I've gone too far.
