It's a world divided, my pleasure my pain
Has it been decided this struggle in vain?
It's a harsh reality, is someone to blame
Is it me again? Tomorrow's another day

(Chorus)

What I know is all that I've got to offer
Living off the memories still alive in my mind
Now it's breaking me down, but it's not over
One Last Time Around

It's a war worth fighting this blood that I've shed
Still I keep denying these words that I've said
Using all my energy I'll sleep when I'm dead
Is it me again, or voices inside my head?

(Chorus)

What I know is all that I've got to offer
Living off the memories still alive in my mind
Now it's breaking me down, but it's not over
One Last Time Around

(Bridge)

Where are you now? I'm running in circles
I would give anything
But would you ever turn around? What could I say..
If you dropped my hand and you walked away

(Chorus)

What I know is all that I've got to offer
Living off the memories still alive in my mind
Now it's breaking me down, but it's not over
One Last Time Around
