Stance at the top of mountain
Facing the earth beneath
Reality drowns in
Thoughts of death
The death knights stand mighty and tall.

The time has
Come to rule again
To take the Vinsketh's control
Creation of death and it's Goal,
To take the lives of the unworthy.

No worthy human eye,
Has ever
Laid look on him.

Unleashed the wrath of ice,
Frozen the lands for Eternity.

Hope of living creatures,
Abandoned this lands in fear
Banished
To the green realm
Since then Vinsketh has been FORGOTTEN!

The chosen five
Knights of Death
Will take and lift up their swords.

Rise the undead army
From the pit
Upon the unworthy life of humans.
