"Erase"

Visit "Erase" on MotoLyrics.com

I drag myself from one day till the next
every little thing
seems so complexed
i'm looking for my saviour every night
but touches without heart is all i find

everything's so lame
and nothing feels the same like it did with you

Erase everything we had Erase these memories
gone bad
Erase you, erase me
Make me to forget it all

Another night another heartless crime
my victims make me feel good for a while Morning's here but my heart still is black there is still that someone i lack

everything's so lame
and nothing feels the
same like it did with you

Erase everything we had Erase these memories
gone bad
Erase you, erase me
Make me to forget it all

And i fool myself to think that i am over you
but every moment i'm awake

i long to be with you
