You were so sure of your beliefs couldn't hear anyone else speak, their mind as they tried to convince you that you were wrong.
There's something different in you know wish I knew what it was so I could put you back into yourself.

You look so happy outside, but I know you cry inside Cause noone wants to be with you no more You think you've done everything to make all of us come back to you but you forgot yourself, yourself

Don't roll around in your misery just try to be what you used to be There's no way you can feel anything before you open up yourself.
There's something different in you now wish
I knew what it was so
I could put you back into yourself.

Take time as long as you need cause you're the only one who can help yourself.
Get thru your sick, sad mind, before it gets thru you
There's something different in you now wish
I knew what it was so
I could put you back into yourself.
Yourself, yourself...
