Here today, gone tomorrow
Was their only view
Strapped themselves, armed with sorrow
Masked fear burned in youth

I have died inside
All alone in this world of mine
I have died inside
All alone in this world of mine
I have died

Confused by what they're feeling
Cashed out on what they've found
Not thinking, not believing
Lashed out at those around

I have died inside
All alone in this world of mine
I have died inside
All alone in this world of mine

Hypnotized by the visions
What they see time and again
See their crimes in the headlines
Clouded pain, beaten sin

I have died inside
All alone in this world of mine
I have died inside
All alone in this world of mine

I have died inside
All alone in this world of mine
I have died inside
All alone in this world of mine
I have died
