

Neruda "Act Of Pain"

Visit "Act Of Pain" on MotoLyrics.com

You wake up trying to make the world complete
Believing you can make a God out of me
You could say now that your life's for free
But what you don't know is that the next day is on me

[Chorus]

(I'll be smiling while / I'll make you see that) you're in the act of pain

Knowing all that's left of you won't be the same
I'll make you realize, your life's been rearrange
I will be within your dreams again and again...

Like the passing winds, I'll make you sure you'll fade
I'll make you see I'm not an illusion you've just made
And then you'll live without my fantasies
I'm just a part of you that had your miseries

[Chorus]

You wake up trying to make the world complete
Believing you can make a God out of me
Like the passing winds, I'll make you sure that you'll fade
I'll make you see I'm not an illusion you've just made

[Chorus]
