"To The DespairedÂ... King Of Darkness"

Congregation of "Shaisaban" is summoned
To bind the flesh and the soul
Strings of pre-domination crafted
Through chants in Bermuda halls

Flames grow higher and higher
It's smoke cloud's their pungent plains
The birth of a desolate empire
Shall aspire from it's remains

The malignant battalion is called forth
Eradication of the mental state prepared
War chants led by the horns now heard
All to serve their lord, despaired

Scholars seek my refuge in hymns
I Bihemoth
Monuments shall reflect existence
I Istaroth
Vanquish the heart of thee
I Marishokyas

We are the ones who dwell within
Then shall the sun rise from the west
The gates of repentance closed
Bring forth the beast followed by fire
Let the despaired be judged
