Pain, pain, the sad fact

Pain, pain

Thank you for the pain

Thank you for the chaos

The very true friends for me

Throughout this dreadful life

Things are blacker then ever

A constant battle rages in my mind

When to end my life is the question left

Of the thing that will lay me to rest

[Coro]

Pain, pain, the sad fact [x2]

Pain, pain

My life has come to an end

My life is done

My selfish decision, the idea will come a fact

The world has overwhelmed my soul

There is nothing left of the warrior I used to be

Fought for years with a lot of tears

The sad fact is I will be soon be forgotten

My name will fade away, my body too

Cowardice will be the only word

That people will speak about me

[Repeat coro]

The good things I have done will rot

There is no other place worse than this world

I would like to change but I cannot

Things are very dark and unreal for me
