World is painted red
Don't you understand
Love is nothing but disguise
Tell me pretty child
What do you see outside?
Burning idols, black sunrise...
Whispers in your head
Voices of the dead
Nothing human anymore
God is everywhere
Falling in betrayal
Bloody rivers sweep the floor
Try this pleasant piece

Of reality
Touch the dust of broken lives
Doomed to live in a horde
Say your final word
Meet your own paradise
When the last step up
Is the first step down
All the sufferings remain
Fear disappears...
Death will dry your tears
Golden Dirt will take your pain...
