Remember when you were eight
No care in the world
The days all went by slow
You'd never grow old
Dinner time by five
Your parents they had time
To talk about your day
And night would fade away

Times they'll always change
Life will always change

The TV on by nine
Back then you had the time
To kick back on the couch
And never leave the house
Your mom and dad were fine
No arguments, just time
To talk about your life
And all the pain and strife

Times they'll always change
Life will always change

Linda McCartney where are you?
Your pictures remind me
Linda McCartney where are you?
Your pictures remind me
Linda McCartney where are you?
Your pictures remind me
Linda McCartney where are you?

The dance starts at ten
Your parents had a van
They took your brother too
You thought he'd never know
The girl of my dreams
Tall blonde and sweet
I'd love her all my life
Until the day i die

Times they'll always change
Life will always change

Linda McCartney where are you?
Your pictures remind me
Linda McCartney where are you?
Your pictures remind me
Linda McCartney where are you?
Your pictures remind me
Linda McCartney where are you?
