Painful lust fills my eyes
These feelings i despise
I want to stop but can't say no
Just as my problem starts to grow

There's no way to justify
I turn to God to hear my cry
Save me from this awfulness
All my thoughts i confess

Images roll in my mind
A better focus i will find
I need you to help me refrain
You've freed me from these chains

There's no way to justify
I turn to God to hear my cry
Save me from this awfulness
All my thoughts i confess

I'm sick of this binding sin
Help me not to fall again
If i do, will you pick me up
When i'm dry, you fill my cup

There's no way to justify
I turn to God to hear my cry
Save me from this awfulness
All my thoughts i confess
