Sometimes it's hard to understand
What it is that's in your plan
And sometimes why you do the things you do
But only if we'd realize
The perfect plan that is alive
Then maybe that's enough to get us through

This perfect child wrapped in your love
Watching us from up above
Smiling on our lives from day to day
And even though you've gone away
This separation cannot stay
And time apart will only fade

Oh we turn to You
To try to understand, to try to get us through
Help us to accept, the things that we reject
To know it's all through you, and your perfect plan
Oh, the perfect plan

Sometimes it's hard to understand
What it is that's in your plan
And sometimes why you do the things you do
But only if we'd realize
The perfect plan that is alive
Then maybe that's enough to get us through

Oh, we turn to you
To try to understand, to try to get us through
Help us to accept, the things that we reject
To know it's all through you

Oh, we turn to you
To try to understand, to try to get us through
Help us to accept, the things that we reject
To know it's all through you
