"Yesterday Sunday"

Where did you go? where did you go?
You smiled and turned and walked away
Didn't say to me that day
You wouldn't be coming home, you wouldn't be coming home
I cried today, i cried today
Though all is gone, my faith is strong
Know that i will carry on and pray
Yesterday sunday, yesterday sunday

And i look at the sky tonight and i swear
That i can see your face up there
And i look out my window tonight and i swear
That i can see you standing there

For the first time in my life, i feel complete now
For the first time in my life, i feel complete now,
complete now

For the first time in my life, i feel complete now
For the first time in my life, i feel complete now,
complete now
