To keep something and never let it change...
For somethings will never be the same ever again... ever again...

Hell, am I right? Am I everything?
Shut your mouth and shut your eyes.
I'm the cause of a rape scene.
"Does it feel good?"
It puts a smile on her face.
Where lovely and loneliness is just another word. To keep something and never let it change...
For somethings will never be the same ever again... ever again...

Hell, am I right? Am I everything,
shut your mouth and shit your eyes.
I'm the cause of a rape scene. "Does it feel good?"
It puts a smile on her face. Where lovely and loneliness is just another word. Until we shiver white, two sips belong for love.

The pins form
tight and fall in love with the sound.
To keep something and never let it change... For somethings will never be the same ever again... e ver again... I can read her lips as she says to me...
It is so real... It is so surreal...
