we are young and impulsive reckless and smooth starving for passion
to feed the broken and the bruised

tonight, lets just drive to the places that we've never been before tonight, lets be young we can forget about tomorrow

(forget about tomorrow, forget about tomorrow yeah, tomorrow)

This is for the, nights we felt alive
driving down the street
We're not going home, tonight
we're not going to grow up (cuz were not going to grow up)

we're not going home tonight
we're not going to grow up

this is for the night we felt alive (tonight, tonight)
driving down the street (we're not growing up tonight)
(tonight, tonight)
we're not going to grow up (we're not growing up)

we're not going to grow up (cuz were not going to grow up)
we're never going to grow up
