Too long searching in darkness. Dead inside. Taken, and destroyed by you. My demise. When you, look into me. With dolls eyes. Leaving, me broken and empty.
Behind my eyes

Ill make the wounds to watch you bleed, But theres no life in you any more.
Ill make the wounds to watch you bleed, But theres no good in you any more

With hidin agendas and looks, sure to thrill You'll make your moves but not this time

And it feels like heaven. Crashing down on me. And everyday, it feels the same, im tired of compromising.
So when i wake, i hope for change, tired of compromising...

MY DEMISE, is for you
So let me go, im already dead.
