Visit "This Abyss" on MotoLyrics.com

Its a subtle truth, you've lost your faith, insects eat your pride,
A subtle lie and a subtle fear, to make us run and hide,
You don't fear my inhibitions, I don't fear your lies,
We fall into this abyss, and out connection dies (fall away, far away, fall away)
I need this rift to see this hole I need this Up comes an angry hand, down goes an empty mind, A dangerous path and a dangerous life, too bad they coincide,
You don't fear my inhibitions, I don't fear your lies,
We fall into this abyss, and out connections dies
