My skins all inside out, I come off as indifferent
I would say what it's about but you know anyway
My heart is on my sleeve, Dissected but still breathing A silent scream it seems is my demise because

My scars are written all over me, you see through everything I am
It's all because my scars are written all over me, one secrets all that I have left It's all because of you

My scars are written all over me, I don't have to say it you can (see right through me) I don't have to tell you what I am thinking when I'm thinking it every things only record taking every last part of me Could it be I'm making it out to be more then it needs to be
This jealousy has (torn you away from me) Never again will it get under my skin so I lock it in a song because I'm not letting you in My scars are written all over me, you see through

everything I am
It's all because my scars are written all over me, one
secrets all that I have left It's all because I wanna know everyday, everyday, every damn day I'm gonna tell you about me I wanna feel everyday, everyday
