"Between Two Wolrds"

I feel fine,
I feel alright,
I feel so good just like I knew I would
Here I stand stuck between two worlds
My closest friends
Know me as the man I am Still,
I'm stuck between two worlds
I close my eyes
And there it is
I can't deny
I'm stuck between two worlds

You're in a dream
Within a dream
Identity
Constructed
Reality
Please wake up
And smell the coffee I made just for you

I feel fine
I feel alright
I feel good just like I knew I would
Here I stand stuck between two worlds
My dirty past,
Has finally come to pass.
Still I am stuck between two worlds
Open your heart
And let it in.
You can't deny,
You're living in one world.

You're in a dream,
Within a dream
Identity
Constructed
Reality
So please wake up
You're living in a haze
It's insane

How much pain.
You must be you, to please wake up
You're insane
It's all in vain to
Cut yourself off
From love
Ooohhh
Sweet love.

Please wake up
And smell the coffee I made just for you.
