Girl, I've been thinking a lot about who
We could have been if I was back home
Just chilling with you and all my friends

But dear I'm gone
And that's the lousy truth

For the past 3 years
I swear I've been a better man
Than who I've become
I know I know I know I'll let you down

But I've been gone
For too damn long

So if you go away
Right now then I can guarantee
That I won't break your heart
But if you go and stay then baby
I will hope and pray that you will run away
Cause dear it breaks my heart
To see you here

So shine outward, not inward
You've been a selfish little girl
For the past 3 years
I've been through more than you could know
And God I don't want you to know
What I have been through
Cause you just wouldn't understand
You're just a girl with some issues
As bad as it might sound

But you're the girl who's been driving me mad

So if you go away
Right now that I can guarantee
That I won't break your heart
But if you go and stay then baby
I will hope and pray that you will run away
Cause dear it breaks my heart

To see you here

So go to school in Chicago
Find a new boy, a new life
A whole new set of friends
Cause all that I will ever do is break your heart
And dear it breaks my heart
To see you here

And dear it breaks my heart
To see you here

But just so you know...

I've been thinking a lot about who we could have been
If I was back home
Just chilling with you and all my friends

But dear I'm gone
And that's the lousy truth
