Nothing is real
I know this 'cause I made a deal
With the devil
He told me that I was just wasting my time
On the moon
So I flew to the sun
Lost track of my soul on the run
Suffering twelfth degree burns
I learned that the sun was no fun.
So I went back to Earth.
Tripped and fell
in the glorified dirt
Honestly, Gravity sees me as a liability.
So I held my breath.
'Til my soul left my body for dead.
I'll rip through the clouds to talk with the man in the sky.
I said...
Take this for what it is.
I think you're
A tad bit prejudice
Against
The ones like us that are searching for the answers.
He said...
Kid, you don't know sh-t.
You should go back home and live
In that quiet little town you left behind.
I'm comin' home.
Don't you cry (Don't you cry.)
Im comin' home
Just in time (Just in time.)
I am a fake
A constant go-getter of fate
I lost track of time
I carried my mind on a plate
I seasoned it well
With acid and MDMA
Then I howled at the moon
'till the sun burned out both of my eyes.

So I checked my pulse

Standing there white as a ghost
I lacked a complexion and stabbed my reflection twelve times
So I held my breath....
'Til my soul left my body for dead.
I'll rip through the clouds to talk with the man in the sky.
I said...
Take this for what it is.
I think you're
A tad bit prejudice
Against

In that quiet little town you left behind.

Don't you cry (Don't you cry.)
Im comin' home
Just in time (Just in time.)
I don't know what I've been told
I will sell my soul to rock and roll
I don't know where to go
I have lost control, oh no
I don't know what I've been told
I will sell my soul to rock and roll
I don't know where to go
I have lost control, oh no
I don't know what I've been told
I will sell my soul to rock and roll
I don't know where to go
I have lost control, oh no
I don't know what I've been told
I will sell my soul to rock and roll
I don't know where to go
I have lost control-- oh no
