You cross my mind when i'm sleeping,
I dream of you when i wake up,
You cross my heart and i hope to fly away
If i can't have you

I think of you in the afternoon,
But i keep my thought's to myself
You say that i don't know you,
But i know something you don't

I won't stop till i have you,
I won't be just fine
I won't sing another fucking note until you're mine
All mine, all mine
Until you're mine, all mine, all mine

Staying up all night,

Waiting for a lustful compromise
But you're alright,
Yeah, you're just gonna sleep down on the floor
See and i can't close my eyes
Cause you're laying three feet to my side
But you're alright,
Yeah you're just gonna sleep down on the floor
Faced down, tryina get some rest

I won't stop till i have you,
I won't be just fine
I won't sing another fucking note until you're mine
All mine, all mine
Until you're mine, all mine, all mine

I won't sing another note,
Until you're mine, yeah,
All mine.
