The wronde wide of town...

You're telling me you're just a small town girl
Straight shot down 44 by 3 hours west from here
You're here for the night and you'e feeling alright
But you seem like the type
To leave when you're falling in love

Spend the night with me
I'll take you away from unnecessary pain
You face everyday from
The modern push and pull
It tugs you around
So please spend the night with me
I'll show you around the wrong side of town

You're telling me you are a good girl
I really ain't one to judge
But you seem like the type
To love 'em
And leave 'em for dust.

You're telling me you are an actress,
Honey you ain't foolin' me.
You'll talk your big talk,
Stare me dead in the eye
As you lie through your teeth

Spend the night with me
I'll take you away from unnecessary pain
You face everyday from
The modern push and pull
It tugs you around
So please spend the night with me
I'll show you around the wrong side of town

(La la la la la la la la la la la la)

Spend the night with me
I'll take you away from unnecessary pain
You face everyday from

The modern push and pull
It tugs you around
So please spend the night with me
I'll show you around the wrong side of town.

We'll get you high on the wrong side of town.
You won't say goodbye on the wrong side of town.

We'll get you high on the wrong side of town
You won't say goodbye on the wrong side of town.

We'll get you high on the wrong side of town.
You won't say goodbye on the wrong side of town

We'll get you high on the wrong side of town.
You won't say goodbye...
