Can't get my head around it
Are you the one to judge us all?
I'm getting scared and angry
We're closing in on our downfall
We need a new beginning
I'm tired of this mess
This road will lead us nowhere
I'm done with their fake promises

In line to prove their perfection
I'd rather walk in another direction

Nothing to prove
And everything to gain
We got a mind of our own
There's nothing we can't do ('cuz we got)
Nothing to prove
And everything to gain
We got a mind of our own
We're the outcasts and the future of today

Welcome to mass confusion
Sit down the show will soon begin
With ears and eyes wide open
Are we expected to give in
I'm here to make a statement
I'm here to rise against
It's all a big illusion
Downhill goes the establishment

In line to prove their perfection
I'd rather walk in another direction

Nothing to prove
And everything to gain
We got a mind of our own
There's nothing we can't do ('cuz we got)
Nothing to prove
And everything to gain
We got a mind of our own
We're the outcasts and the future of today

One more thing I've got to say
You can reject us but you'll never take our voice away
One more step, moving on
Join the parade of better days and let the Present future in

Nothing to prove
And everything to gain
We got a mind of our own
There's nothing we can't do '(cuz we got)
Nothing to prove
And everything to gain
We got a mind of our own
We're the outcasts and the future of today
