I want to come closer, but you are so distant.
Lately your thoughts are so far.
I want to show you all that you're missing,
And I'll meet you right where you are.

O' Love, I've always known you, and,
O' Love, you've always been mine.
O' Love, I'm only asking you for your life.

Say that you need me. I know what you're feeling.
And You cannot do this alone. I gave you my Word,
And I gave you my life so you'll never be on your own.

O' Love, I've always known you, and,
O' Love, you've always been mine.
O' Love, I'm only asking you for your life.

You're waiting for this life to be what you wanted
(Is this what you wanted?)
You're waiting for this life to be what you needed.
(Is this what you needed?)
You're waiting for this life.

O' Love, I've always known you, and,
O' Love, you've always been mine.
