Remember the days when we were hiding out all night
I wanna go back there and tell you it's alright
We used to say that it was us against the world
We had the biggest dreams but now it's all forgotten

I was so naive, I wanted you to stay forever
I wanted it to last forever, I wanted you to stay forever
I wanted it to last forever, but everything changes in time

Remember the place we had behind the big old factory
Just the two of us, I'd never felt so free
All the secrets and the promises we made, made me Feel like I was king a single day

I was so naive, I wanted you to stay forever
I wanted it to last forever, I wanted you to stay forever
I wanted it to last forever, but everything changes in
time

I've got so much to say to you, I even wrote a song for you
I never stop thinking about you

I wanted you to stay forever, I wanted it to last forever
I wanted you to stay forever, I wanted it to last forever
But everything changes in time
