She said, that she was leaving
That she just didn't need me
That she was just killing time
When she closed the door I
I fell to the floor and I thought
Alleluia girl goodbye
Alleluia I couldn't wait to see her go
I would have even helped pack her clothes

I didn't even love you baby
You know you drove me crazy
I was never gonna have you baby, no no
Don't even think I'll miss you
I never wanted to kiss you
Cause you were never an issue, for me
Alleluia...

She said I used too much salt
And everything was always my fault
She always had the remote control
Always on the phone for hours
Always left her hair in the shower
I thank God now, that she's gone
Let me put this into words
I never really gave a fuck for her

I didn't even love you baby
You know you drove me crazy
I was never gonna have you baby, no no
Don't even think I'll miss you
I never wanted to kiss you
Cause you were never an issue, for me
Alleluia...

Let me put this into words
I never really gave a fuck for her

I didn't even love you baby
You know you drove me crazy
I was never gonna have you baby, no no
Don't even think I'll miss you
I never wanted to kiss you

Cause you were never an issue, for me...

I didn't even love you baby
You know you drove me crazy
I was never gonna have you baby, no no
Don't even think I'll miss you
I never wanted to kiss you
Cause you were never an issue, for me...
