I know that it burns
Like poison in the pill
Sing me to sleep
Echoes in the hills
Can't hear a word
Can't hear my broken will

The world through a windshield
Is callous and cheap
I toss and i turn
But i can't get to sleep
Counting the hours
The days that turn into weeks

I've been wrong, but it's alright
And there've been long and lonely nights
I've been lost, but i found you
Turn out the light
I'll stay if you want me to

Somehow my time got out of my hands
I just want to stop
The master commands
I'm telling you the truth
It won't be this way again

A long ways away but you're never alone
You look at the sky over our home
I'll be around
A few more miles to go

I've been wrong, but it's alright
There've been long and lonely nights
I was lost 'til i found you
Turn off the light
I'll stay if you want me to

You don't have to say it
You don't have to speak
I've been away, worried and weak
Don't say a word

I've been wrong, but it's alright
There've been long and lonely nights
I was lost 'til i found you
Turn out the light
I'll stay if you want me to
