There was a hidden mistake from a cold walk away

You threw a fit like a child and it stuck with me

Reciting lines from old songs and phone calls

Your life was better off without me

You had that look in your eye

Your mouth was tight

You were looking to try everything on me

It's not always easy to find the words that you're looking for

Yeah you're searching for
As I try to find my...

Cause you believed

Yeah you believed in love and the ever after

I hope you know that this was hardly perfect and not so worth it I believe that sometimes the best things in life are better off without me

You believed in a lonely road with a laid out path and a dressed-up home

And you say that you're the one
