It's too late
We missed it
I think that ship is sailing
Now I hope that ship will sink

We're waiting
No warning
The fire alarm is screaming
Without the means to stop the ring
I say

I don't belong
Waiting to long
I don't fit in
Fail before I begin

City Hearts
Trailer Parks
One million miles apart
So different, nonetheless still the same

Tomorrow
Yesterday
To soon and still to late
Park my bags, leave today
I say
