Have you seen Amanda Blaine, in the hills of Shiloh
Runnin' through the mornin' rain, in the hills of Shiloh
Have you seen her at her door
Listenin' for the cannon's roar
And a man who went to war, from the hills of Shiloh

Have you heard her mournful cries, in the hills of Shiloh
Have you seen her haunted eyes, in the hills of Shiloh
Have you seen her runnin' down
Searchin' through the sleepin' town
In her yellowed weddin' gown, in the hills of Shiloh

Have you seen her standin' there, in the hills of Shiloh
Wind a-tearin' through her hair, in the hills of Shiloh
Listenin' for the sound of guns
Listenin' for the rollin' drums
And a man who never comes, to the hills of Shiloh

Have you heard Amanda sing, in the hills of Shiloh,
Shiloh
Whisperin' to her weddin' ring, in the hills of Shiloh,
Shiloh
Hear her hummin', soft and low
For Amanda does not know
'Twas ended forty years ago, in the hills of Shiloh
