You were driven apart from me
- it's so cold without you -
Love has died so many times
- but not in so painful way -

And you will always remain here in my heart
Why you had to go so young, I fall anyway

Deep is this sadness
Now everything is so damn far away
And love is hurting, I won't seal my fate...
I lose anyway

So empty is my heart without you
- only you ever made me smile -
I hope you're fine wherever you are

And you will always remain here in my heart
Why you had to go so young, I fall anyway

Deep is this sadness, now everything is so damn far away
And love is hurting, I wont seal my fate... I lose anyway

All what is precious, my worthless life is tearing me apart
Night of the living death... why you had to go so young I lose anyway

I lose anyway
I lose anyway
All life, all life

All life is losing
Please let me drown
I never claimed that life is easy

All life is losing
Please let me drown
I never claimed that life is easy
