Visit "Hollywood Burns" on MotoLyrics.com

Staring at you
That sunburn looks so pretty on your face

Turn Â'round
Your make-up gives my mind
Some naughty thoughts

I see the malicious way you come around
You fill every emptiness by wicked games you play

Refrain :

Your Hollywood burns
But no matter what they say
No way to come up
Cause youÂ'll never be the same
Your trust is so frail

Turn your smile into despair
If Hollywood burnsÂ...

For a while Much too blind to see what youÂ're really looking for

Tease me more
I guess thatÂ's just the way you take control

Just have to find how to face the truth
You showed me eye-to-eye
But such a waste of time
To be the one you care about

Refrain
