"Sick Feeling As You"

Follow the sound
through the ground
bruised by a voice
inside the grave I'm trapped in...
Look back towards the tracks
you've left along the way cleanse insane love you just put aside...

Feel the cold embrace of spare time...
when the mood is let down...
Refrain :

Breakdown... same old sick memory
you turn around just to feel the thrill running on the highways of my head... wish I was far from the way I'm in
I wish I was the same I used to be...
Follow the sun
along the sky
turn your face and get ready when light is out...
Cuz hate and love
make hearts beat in the same ways blame it on yourself
when you're feeling fine...

Feel the coldness of winter's blow... everywhere you go...
(Refrain)

You turn around just to feel the thrill
you come and play the same old game as you did you kill the pain, you delete the feelings
get ready for the future you blew away.....
get ready for the future you blew away.....
