[Verse: Ricky Bell]

I went out, last niight

See, that's when I met a sexy girl

She was lookin' so riight

She said, "I wanna take you for a trip around the world"

And by the look in her eyes, ho

The girl was serious!

She wore no disguise, oh no.

So let's have some fun, yeah!

[Chorus:]

(I thought it was me) - I thought it was me who makes
the girl this way

(I thought it was me) - I came to find out she's like that
every day

(I thought it was me) - I thought it was me that makes
that girl so wild

(I thought it was me) - I found out she's like that with all the guys

[Michael Bivins:]

Yo, I love bein a bachelor

Ricky said, "Yo, that girl's a good catch for ya"

She and I choose to cruise in my love boat

My waterbed, kept us afloat

I had to prove my manhood

Show her that the B-I-V was DAMN good, understood?

I never had my boat rocked like that before, YO!

[Ricky Bell:]

The way we left the spot, all systems ready to go

She said, "Sit back and relax, I'm runnin' the show"

I couldn't hesitate, it was much too late

That girl had got me straight, and I was ready to go, yeah!

B! (yeah.)

B! (yeah.)

D! (yeah...)

B.B.D

B! (yeah.)

B! (yeah.)

D! (yeah...)

B.B.D

[Michael Bivins:]
Yo' Ron, was-SUP, wit that fly girl you left the jam with?
She's stickin' closer to you
Than the bread on the meat of my sandwich
I know you rock a beach, cuz
[Ronnie DeVoe:]

Naaaw, it wasn't even like that
She left the room to get comfy and cozy (wha?)
Then the R to the O to the N got nosey

[Ricky Bell:]
Cruising guys was her favorite past-time
Takin' chances almost got her lifetime
She said, "You only live oooooonce"
Stayin' loose, made many head turns
If you did her wrong, you just might get burned.
So let's have some fun, yeah-HE!

[Chorus:]
(I thought it was me) - I thought it was me who makes
the girl this way
(I thought it was me) - I came to find out she's like that
every day
(I thought it was me) - I thought it was me that makes
that girl so wild
(I thought it was me) - I found out she's like that with all

(I thought it was me) - I thought it was me who makes
