"Just Boy"

every once in a while I see your face, I'm feeling half the man then you cup your hands you throw me away, I'm under but then everything beneath me fails, I'm feeling half
the man
then you shut your eyes, you close me away, I'm under I'm alone with these thoughts of mine people look and tell me justboy I don't believe in anything that's the message in your eyes
I don't believe in anything
that's the message in your eyes I have tried so hard to leave this place, it leaves me under?half?
I want to feel your breath here with me, and kiss you I'm alone with these thoughts of mine
people look and tell me justboy
I don't believe in anything
that's the message in your eyes
I don't believe in anything
that's the message in your eyes
I am hoping through the dark clouds light shall break and bring a bright sky
I am hoping through the dark clouds
light shall break and bring a bright sky
I am hoping through the dark clouds
light shall break and bring a bright sky
light shall break and bring a bright sky
