I thought I'd write you something to remember me by,
A commemorative for the two years you spent by my side,
But every day is a new mistake,
A new song to be written and erased,
Why would you listen anyway,

Finally I'm going on with my life,
What a big mistake it was saving all my good-byes,

I'm not the type of person to get over it,
It's stuck in the back of my mind along with the time we spent,

Finally I'm going on with my life,
What a big mistake it was saving all my good-byes,
By the end of the year,
You won't even be there,
What a big mistake it was,
I wanted you to be there

Piece it together,
Along with all the rest,
Don't forget to write,
Warm your cold shoulder,
Don't listen to what they say, what they say,

I thought I'd write you something to remember me by,

Finally I'm going on with my life,
What a mistake it was saving all my good-byes,
By the end of the year,
You won't even be there,
What a big mistake it was,
I wanted you to be there
