Let's go!

Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah, woah

You always thought that you could be
Oh, with just about anyone
You know the right way to get around in my head
Woah

I never had the chance
There was no letting up
It was over before I put the key in the door
Woah

I stayed all night til you asked me to go
I remake it every time that I am alone
And it's only now that I'm finding out

You were, you were the only one to break my heart
You were the only one to break my heart
If I could just go back to the start
I'd tell myself I don't need anyone

Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah, woah

You always knew that you could have me
Or just about anyone
And now I'm stuck here with a mouth full of regret
Woah

We talked all night til the sun showed up
I confessed my love but that wasn't enough
And it's only now that I'm finding out

You were, you were the only one to break my heart
You were the only one to break my heart
If I could just go back to the start
I'd tell myself I don't need anyone

You were, you were the only one to break my heart
You were the only one to break my heart
If I could just go back to the start

I'd tell myself I don't need anyone

You wait around for the perfect time
(Woah eat your heart out)
Changing your plans, changing your mind
(Woah you keep me guessing)
When you got up and left me,
Did you think that you'd forget me?

Yeah did you think that you'd forget me?

Woah, woah, woah, woah, woah, woah

You were, you were the only one to break my heart
You were the only one to break my heart
If I could just go back to the start
I'd tell myself I don't need anyone

You were, you were the only one to break my heart
I don't need anyone
You were, you were the only one to break my heart

I still remember how we talked all night til the sun showed up
I confessed my love but that wasn't enough
And it's only now that I'm finding out

"You never think a girl so beautiful could be so cold a killer"
