The needle on my record player has been wearing thin
This record has been playing since the day you went with him

No more long rides home

No more of your station

I didn't like it anyways

Remember the time we wrote our names upon the wall

Remember the time we realized "Thriller" was our favorite song

Chorus

Have I waited too long

Have I found that someone

Have I waited waited too long

To see you

Maybe it's for the best

Maybe it's not for anything

It wouldn't be so bad to take this right from me

No more long rides home

No more of your station

I didn't like it anyway

Remember the time we realized Thriller was our
favorite song

Chorus

see you

How many times I've tried

It's simple to you, so simple to lie

How many times I've tried

Blatant mistakes of your design

Chorus

To see you

I've had so many chances

Turn my back and I ran away

I've had so many chances

To see you
